Mr. Dulles raised the question of O/PC interest in the Lodge Bill for the establishment of an alien arm in the U.S. Army. It was pointed out that the Director had already written the Secretary of Defense on this matter.

Mr. Jackson raised the question of space for Gordon Gray and stated that he believed Gray would prefer to be on neutral territory rather than in CIA offices. Mr. Wolf said that Finan, of the Bureau of the Budget, had objected to putting Gray in the old State Department building. It was decided that an office for Gray, and a secretary, would be available for him in South Building next Monday upon his arrival and that it would be up to Gray to discuss with Finan the possibilities of office space elsewhere.

It was reported that John Scowley, who had written the favorable piece on CIA for the AP, had been asked by Colliers to do a piece on General Smith.

25X1 Mr. [redacted] reported that other agencies were critical of CIA's handling of the disposal of aliens and also of the fact that there was no specific office in CIA charged with inducement.
